Ringside seats for wrestling fans

WWF faithfuls are in for a feast of fun on Sunday 4 April as Sky Sports screens live and exclusive coverage of Wrestlemania IX, from Caesar's Palace, Las Vegas.

Topping the bill is the clash between the WWF Champion, Bret 'Hit Man' Hart and the 505lb gargantuan, Yokozuna — one of the newest faces (and what a big face it is, too) on the WWF scene!

Wrestlemania is live at 12 midnight on Sunday 4 April.

Competition winners

Congratulations to Mrs Keating of London SW7 who was the winner of our Valentine's Day romantic meal for two competition (worth £100). Four runners-up also win exclusive Bravo T-shirts.

Meanwhile, Mr Grubb (Southampton), Janet Lee (Woolwich) and Tony Murphy (Charlton) were the winners of our February MTV soul weekend competition, winning tickets to see Michael Bolton at Wembley this May.

Laying Jaws to rest

Often considered the world's most deadly predator, the shark has snapped up a regular weekly slot on Mondays at 8pm.

Portrayed as mindless killing machines in Hollywood films, this terrifying image is far from the truth in the tropical, South Pacific islands.

Here, where people's lives are closely entwined with the sea, they are considered 'Taputapua', the reincarnation of long-departed ancestors.

Taputapua: Sharks of Polynesia is a rare insight into the activities of these formidable creatures, showing on Monday 12 April at 8pm.

Quest for the Basking Shark, on Monday 5 April at 8pm, looks at one of the most grotesque members of the species, a gentle, toothless, plankton-feeding fish, suffering with no more than an image problem!

Cook the White way

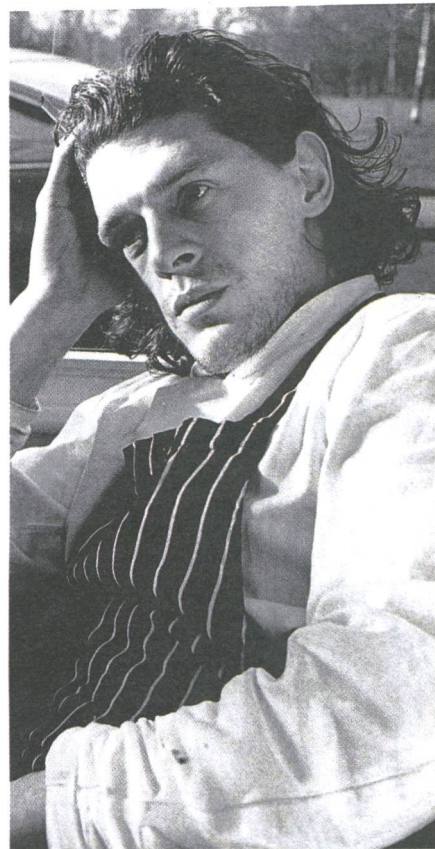

If you're planning something special for your Easter feast, you may well pick up some tips from Marco Pierre White, the rebel chef from the world of haute cuisine.

Defying all the traditions of the profession, 28-year-old Marco has cooked his way through the best kitchens in the country. In this brand new series, he cooks for the chefs who have helped get him where he is today — Albert Roux, Nico Ladenis, Pierre Koffman, Raymond Blanc and Keith Floyd.

As he cooks, he talks about the dishes themselves, his views on perfection and why the customer may not always be right!

This six-part series screens on Thursdays at 1.30pm from 8 April, only on the Learning Channel.

Rebel, rebel: Marco Pierre White.

No. 5,000 plugs in

To signify that our telephone service is being recognised as a real cost-saving alternative to BT, Videotron has recently installed its 5,000th customer.

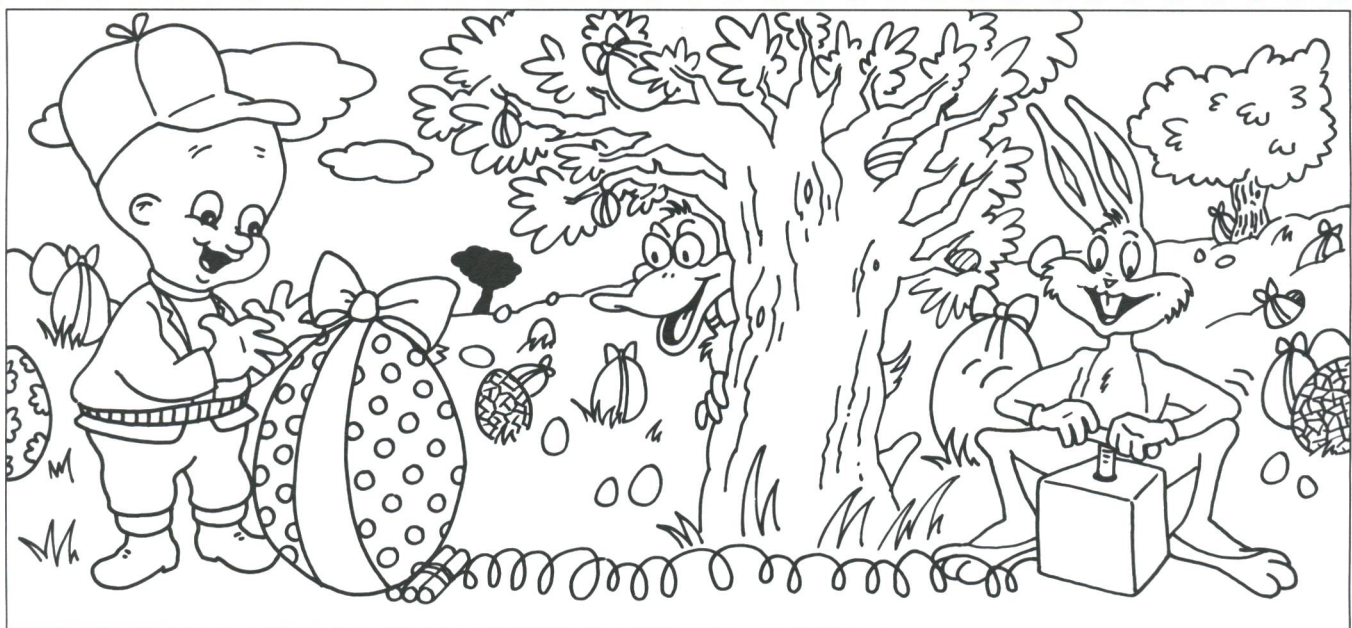

Mr and Mrs Drayson, of Freemantle, signed up for the unbeatable service — and because they are cable TV customers too, they are now enjoying savings of up to 20 per cent off their phone bill, monthly bills with all calls itemised and the highest possible standards of service.

Mr Drayson said: "We felt that the telephone service offered by Videotron allowed us to economise not only on national but local calls too.

"As such, it really is the only real alternative to BT for both domestic and business users."

We were delighted to present the Draysons with a magnum of champagne and an answerphone to mark this milestone.

Eggcellent Easter colouring competition

Hey kids, why not enter our really Eggcellent Easter Colouring Competition where you could win Bugs Bunny? All you need to do is carefully colour in our eggsplosive cartoon, using pencils, felt tip, crayons, paints, glitter or whatever other materials you would like to use! Four grand prize winners in a 4-8 and 9-15 age group will win a 2ft-tall Bugs Bunny toy, and two runners-up from each section will win a cuddly Easter bunny.

Send your entry, along with your name, address and age, to Easter Colouring Competition, Videotron, Videotron House, 11-29 Belmont Hill, Lewisham, London SE13 5AU by 30 April 1993.

Enjoy the country air

And that's not all folks . . . you could win Nanci Griffith concert tickets! It's not just country music fans who will appreciate the exceptional talent of Nanci Griffith — the true torch-bearer of American folk music. She's touring the UK in support of her 10th album Other Voices, Other Rooms, which features Bob Dylan, Emmylou Harris and Arlo Guthrie, in a series of sell-out concerts. On 19 and 20 May she plays the Royal Albert Hall in London, and we have five pairs of tickets (courtesy of CMTV) to give away in this month's competition.

Send to CMTV Competition, Videotron, Videotron House, 11-29 Belmont Hill, Lewisham, London SE13 5AU, by 28 April 1993.

Chances

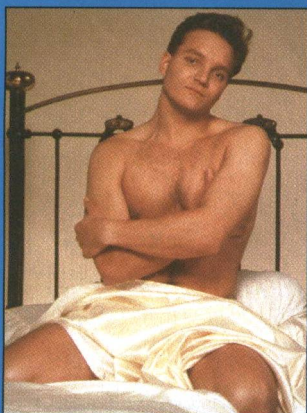

Sky One

Thursdays 9.00pm

ALEX TAYLOR, the thrusting yuppie with as much moral fibre as Dracula, has to make the hardest decision of his life in Chances this month.

Jeremy Sims, the dashing star who plays the irrepressible Alex, says: 'I ended up making Alex a bit cleverer than the producers anticipated and a bit more psychologically complex so that he felt guilt.'

Now Alex is becoming weirder, Sims says. 'He was just nasty to start with but now he probably needs to sit down on a psychiatrist's couch and sort out his problems.'

This month the old charmer seems to be haunted by the living dead. The problem becomes so scary that he consults a medium.

In fact Alex's life is in so much turmoil at present. You will almost be able to feel sympathy for him.

But then comes Alex's big dilemma. Billionaire Crowley Lander offers his empire and his daughter Imogen to Alex. Surely it is a deal that will be too good to refuse?

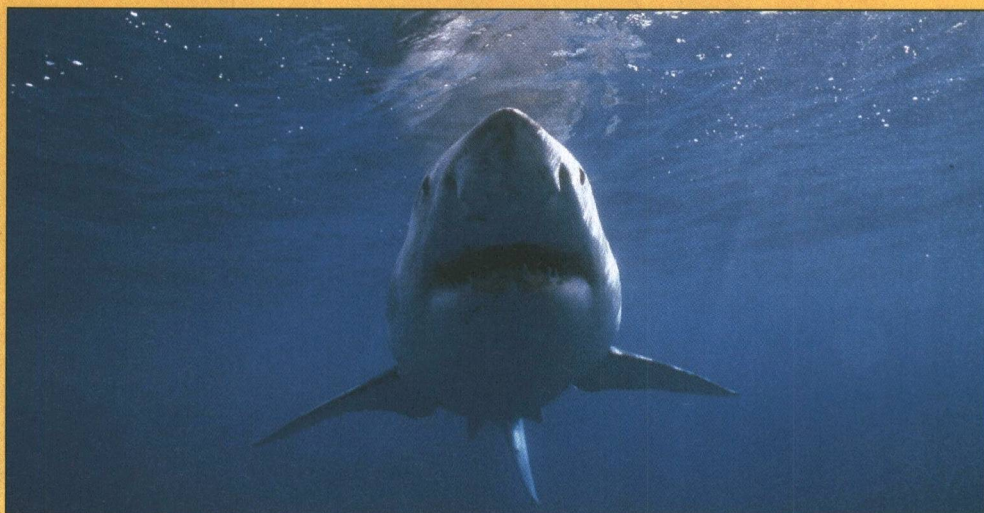

But there are people, namely Jack, who are prepared to take drastic steps to ensure that Alex is not tempted.

And why should murder enter Alex's mind in pursuit of what he wants?

All will be revealed – as usual in a soap famed for its nudity! ■

Nice to eat you!

Sharks

The Discovery Channel,

Mondays 8.00pm repeated Saturdays 11.05pm

DISCOVERY HAS A tasty season for you to sink your teeth into this month. Maligned as mindless killing machines in movies like Jaws, sharks have a poor image. But in tropical South Pacific islands they are considered Taputapua, the reincarnation of long-departed ancestors. Paputapua: Sharks of Polynesia (Monday 12th) is one in a series of fascinating encounters with these misunderstood fish. For example, The Quest for the Basking Shark (Monday 5th) profiles one of the more grotesque members of the species and its reputation for swallowing sailors whole and terrorising sea-goers. They are, in fact, gentle, toothless and plankton-feeding. ■

Jodie fosters a passion

The Blood of Others

Sky One starts Sunday 25th 7.00pm

JODIE FOSTER steps into the fashions of the 1940s for Sky One's two-part wartime thriller The Blood of Others. The two-time Oscar-winning star plays Helene Bertrand, a headstrong young woman prepared to sacrifice everything for the man she loves. The story is based on a novel by Simone de Beauvoir. Foster's character is tested by a perilous Resistance operation. Meanwhile a love-stricken German (Sam Neill), who would destroy both of them rather than allow another man to have Helene, suspects her of anti-Nazi subversion. ■

Suzy finds fame in Dollywood!

Country Music Television Europe

Country music videos, seven days a week,
24 hours a day

ONE INTRIGUING aspect of country music's recent surge in popularity has been the influx of female performers like Suzy Bogguss, who have underscored country's new and enlightened diversity with a return to folk roots.

Suzy was raised in the small town of Aledo, Illinois, which she affectionately describes as 'a community of 3000 people in the middle of a cornfield', and after leaving college travelled troubador-style through Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, Mexico and Canada, playing in town squares and local clubs.

And then she went to Nashville.

'It was like Bang! Who was gonna discover me travelling around the mountains? So I started singing on demos in Nashville and was offered the excellent opportunity of a headline position at Dollywood (Dolly Parton's musical theme park at Pigeon Forge, Tennessee).'

It was while opening for Dolly that Suzy was spotted by Capitol Records executives, and her debut album Something in Between followed soon after.

Three years later she was a major star boasting a smash hit cover version of Nanci Griffith's Outbound Plane.

'I'm a huge fan of Nanci's,' says Suzy. 'I haven't heard anybody whose poetry has struck me harder than hers. She never stops expanding or challenging herself, which I find very inspiring as a female artist. Likewise Emmylou Harris and Linda Ronstadt; they really pioneer for us females out there.'

Her latest album Voices in the Wind is a collection of songs from her folk, country and rock roots, and includes two more hits in the form of Drive South and Letting Go.

'I personally feel video has really helped me,' she says of her chic and stylish screen image. 'I really feel that when people finally started putting the face to the voice it was easier for them to grab hold.'

And how!

You can see Suzy Bogguss performing Outbound Plane, Drive South and Letting Go on CMT Europe. ■

The Easter jazz parade

Jazz Month

The Performance Channel
Jazz programmes daily

APRIL ON THE Performance Channel is undoubtedly striking the right note for jazz and blues lovers.

Some of the most exciting performers of recent years will be improvising through a month of concerts. Among them are – deep breath! – Booker T, Chick Corea, Billy Cobham, Dizzy Gillespie, Herbie Hancock, John Lee Hooker, the Newport Jazz Festival All-Stars, Lee Ritenour, Tower of Power, Joe Zawinul, Carla Thomas and many, many more.

The centrepiece of April's daily diet of jazz is a four-day extravaganza over the Easter weekend featuring a dozen major concerts.

Whether they are on violin (Randy Sabien), guitar (Herb Ellis) or vocals (Carmen McRae), or they are known as stars of New Age jazz (Scott Cossu Trio), Blues (Willie Dixon) or Fusion (Steps Ahead), there's a kaleidoscope of talent and styles being lined up.

See daily listings for details ■

Fashion runs riot!

The Trainer Wars

The Discovery Channel
Tuesday 6th 11.00pm

ONCE UPON a time the youngsters anticipating games lessons had a choice of black or white plimsolls from Woollies. These days trainers, as they became known, are the ultimate fashion statement, so highly prized by US street gangs that they have been known to kill youngsters to rob them of the latest style. Nike or Reebok? Do you pay £50 or £100 for a pair? Do you wear the tongues in or out? Forget sporting performance, teenagers have to keep pace with the latest gimmicks and trends or appear as outmoded as a Model T Ford to their friends. The Trainer Wars looks at how the market for trainers has exploded and examines the relationship between the business, the sports field and the street. Last year over 150 million pairs were sold in the US and it is estimated that 98 per cent of Americans own a pair. Twenty years ago a consumer would only need to worry about what size they wanted. Today the choice is endless in the quest to be shod in enough street cred to sweep friends off their feet ■

Fast-living Francesca!

I'll Take Manhattan

Sky One
starts Sunday 11th 8.00pm

THE GLAMOROUS Francesca Annis plays the adulterous wife of a publishing tycoon in Sky One's eight-hour mini series I'll Take Manhattan.

This is the story of Zachary Amberville (Barry Bostwick) who returns home after the war and builds his publishing empire. His brother Cutter Amberville (Perry King) is a handsome charmer, who is jealous of Zachary.

Lily (Francesca Annis) marries Zach but it is not long before she falls for Cutter's charms and an illegitimate baby is on the scene.

Further divorces, deaths and babies follow before a final showdown over the future of the Amberville empire is resolved. ■

A star is born

Encyclopedia Galactica

The Discovery Channel
Tuesdays 7.00pm (starts 6 April)

THE DISCOVERY CHANNEL is taking viewers on its very own star trek – and it promises to be a spectacle not to be missed. Encyclopedia Galactica charts the universe from the moment when time and space began. It is an eye-opening journey featuring dazzling computer graphics unrivalled by any previous TV series. Terence Murtagh, a former director of Ireland's Armagh Planetarium, spent a year creating the spectacular computer work for this series of 25 10-minute programmes. Along the way there are close encounters with the solar system's nine planets, neighbouring galaxies and the odd black hole. And if that is not awesome enough, there is a review of the story of manned space flight and a guide for the amateur astronomer. Far out! ■

CINDERELLA

The most exquisite porcelain figure ever
of the most magical of all fairy-tale heroines.

She is Cinderella, the supremely romantic fairy-tale heroine. At the most dramatic moment of her life. Now captured in this breathtaking porcelain figurine.

Created by the award-winning fantasy artist Gerda Neubacher. Beautifully sculptured in fine, hand-painted bisque porcelain. Richly accented with 22 carat gold.
With her enchanted slipper in sparkling glass.

Every detail wondrously re-created. Her flowing golden hair and soft blue eyes. Her lavish pink ballgown. Her glittering tiara richly coated with 22 carat gold.

All the frills and filigree that only a fairy godmother could conjure.

From the charming rosettes of her bodice to the gold trimming of her wind-swept gown, this is Cinderella as never before. Priced at £145 payable in convenient monthly instalments.

New frontiers?

I AM AN avid Star Trek: The Next Generation viewer, but when I sit down to watch my favourite sci-fi I find the Enterprise trekking over territory we've boldly seen before. Are there any plans to air the new episodes soon, and if so, when? Also, could you let me know if Sky One will be broadcasting the new Star Trek spin-off Deep Space 9?
Simon Crossland
London

I HAVE BEEN watching the current series of Star Trek: The Next Generation and was disappointed that Sky decided to repeat the first two series again after such a short while. I remember reading that they had acquired the new series and this was one of the deciding factors when I purchased cable television. Can you tell me when the new series is scheduled to start?

Mr A McCulloch
Edinburgh

● Sky has no immediate plans to show either the new series of Star Trek: The Next Generation or Deep Space 9.

Hitting The Heights

I am writing on behalf of my daughter to ask if there will be another series of The Heights. We all enjoyed it so much; there aren't many good shows about young people who sing and play. Also, is there an album available of the songs featured in the programme?

William Hartnell as Doctor Who

Jackie Hocking
Birmingham

I AM 16 years old and think The Heights is one of the best shows on Sky One. Could you please tell me if there are any plans to show another series?

Cathy Huggins
Bristol

● Sky has no plans to show another series of The Heights at present. There is no soundtrack album of the series in this country.

Who's Who

I HAVE REALLY enjoyed watching the early episodes of Dr Who on UK Gold, but why have so many episodes been missed out – especially some of those adventures featuring the Daleks and Cybermen?

Sarah Pearce
Bristol

● Permission to show any Dalek stories on Satellite television has been withheld by the writer. The original Cybermen adventures appear to have been lost, although UK Gold is planning to show Revenge of the Cybermen with Tom Baker during the Summer months.

More programmes for OAPs

THERE ARE SO MANY sports programmes, but not much for OAPs. Bravo has so many repeats, Discovery and Super Channel are not interesting at all now, and the best one, Lifestyle, has been discontinued. Please can we have more game shows, shopping programmes, historic, DIY or gardening programmes, in fact, a wider choice that caters for all.

Vera Ireson
London

● May 4th sees the launch of The Cable Network (TCN), a new channel which will broadcast a number of Lifestyle-type programmes on such topics as cooking, fashion and pet care, as well as quizzes and competitions. TCN is also considering purchasing some programmes shown on Lifestyle.

The spirit of Easter

IT'S COMING UP towards Easter and I was wondering if any cable channels are going to show any films about 'Christ'. All we get is vampires, wars, gang and drug films.

Mr Paul Gray, Glasgow

● Unfortunately there appear to be no films scheduled over Easter that deal with the life of Christ.

Yum, yum

I HAVE ENJOYED watching The Goodies on UK Gold.

I was a huge fan of theirs in the 1970s, and they still manage to make me laugh in the 1990s. But I am sure that some episodes have not been shown. Do you know why, and will they ever be shown?

Miss E Smith
Catford, London

● Some episodes do get lost. We don't know if the missing ones will be shown yet.

Bill me

IF YOU KNOW IT, could you let us have the address of The Bill fan club?

Patricia and Lindsay Weller
Middlesex

● You can reach The Bill at: The Bill Fan Club
Sierra Oscar
PO Box 1816
Edmonton
London N18 2UZ

'The Bill's' Colin Tarrant and Christopher Ellison

Soap subs

PLEASE COULD you tell me when The Young and the Restless will return to Sky One, as my friends and I have been watching it for two years.

If not, is there any point in subscribing to Sky via Cable if soaps are going to be discontinued mid-story?

Mrs K Leuer
Bristol

● Sky has no plans to bring the series back in the near future.

Bring back Gilad!

RE: BODIES in Motion. Here I was working out with Gilad, Joe, Trella and my wife. I was getting fit. Then it left. When it came back I began again. Then Screensport merges with Eurosport and I don't get to step, skip or dance. Bring back Gilad, my health and fitness are at stake!

Lesley Wright, Liverpool

● Eurosport has no plans to bring Gilad Janklowicz's programme back in the near future.

Can Bret Hart score a hit on Yokozuna?

Who's hot and who's not in the WWF - John Greenfield reveals all!

WELL, WRESTLING FANS, April is crunch month for the WWF lords of the ring. Live and exclusive from Caesar's Palace, Las Vegas, the mayhem of Wrestlemania IX dominates Sky Sports for three hours on Sunday 4th at 12midnight.

Topping the bill is the earth-shaking confrontation between BRET HIT MAN HART and the Godzilla-sized YOKOZUNA. One of the newest faces on the WWF scene, the 505-pound Yokozuna eliminated everyone in his path at the recent Royal Rumble, including established stars and former WWF champs Macho Man Randy Savage and Bob Backlund.

Over 16,000 lucky WWF fans will pack Caesar's Palace to see this annual Spring spectacular. And spectacular could be the understatement of the year if the latest rumours of HULK HOGAN's comeback are true.

No sooner did Cable Guide launch the Bring Back the Hulkster campaign than the man himself was shocking millions of WWF fans on Sky's Monday Night Raw with the news that Hollywood had failed to secure his exclusive services. Word has it that the Hulk will be take part in Wrestlemania IX. Wow!

England go Dutch

England v Holland

Sky Sports - Live
Wednesday 28th
6.30pm

ENGLAND face a crucial World Cup qualifier against old rivals Holland on Wednesday 28th.

The England players will be looking to use the Wembley advantage to pull together a convincing home performance. The harsh reality facing the England team is that this is a match that must be won at all costs. It's a crucial fixture on the rocky road to the World Cup Finals in America in 1994.

Holland are widely considered to be the danger team in this qualifying group, with a wealth of experience and talent in their group that includes the inimitable skills of world stars such as Marco Van Basten, Gullit and Rijkaard.

So far England have the edge over Holland. The two sides have met 10 times with four of those meetings being drawn, four being won by England and two by Holland. The team's most recent encounter with the Dutch was in a preliminary match for the 1990 World Cup finals, when the game ended in a 0-0 stalemate. This performance was a far cry from the match of 1946 when England beat the Dutch 8-2!

England will need to approach this important game carefully. Certainly, in recent World Cup qualifying matches some key players have been below par, but against a side like the Dutch nothing but an effective all-round team performance will be sufficient.

To get viewers in the World Cup spirit, England's encounter with Holland will be previewed by live coverage of another game in the group. Norway, who have been the in-form team and already held England to a 1-1 draw, are at home to Turkey. Leading the way for the high-flying Norwegians are Spurs keeper Eric Thorsvedt, Oldham midfielder Gunner Halle and Kjell Rekdal, who scored Norway's equaliser against England at Wembley earlier in the year. ■

F1 live from Donington

Formula 1 Grand Prix of Europe

Eurosport
Easter Sunday 11th 2.00pm

DONINGTON PARK is to host the Formula 1 'Grand Prix of Europe' on Easter Sunday April 11th.

This is the first time that a F1 World Championship has been staged at the circuit and provides the first opportunity for race fans to see the world's greatest drivers during the 1993 World Championship season.

Donington Park is the only privately owned Grand Prix circuit in the world. Present owner Tom Wheatcroft bought Donington Park in 1971 and totally rebuilt the circuit, overcoming numerous legal battles in the process and reopening in May 1977.

70-year-old Wheatcroft, a self-made multi-millionaire from his building interests, has been promised a Grand Prix at Donington five times in previous years as a result of his legal and political fights, all to no avail. It was while in Australia in November of last year that he learned of the final success of his 22-year campaign.

Wheatcroft has campaigned tirelessly for a F1 Grand Prix to be staged at Donington. His efforts seemed doomed in the mid-1980s when FIA introduced a 'one country, one race' policy.

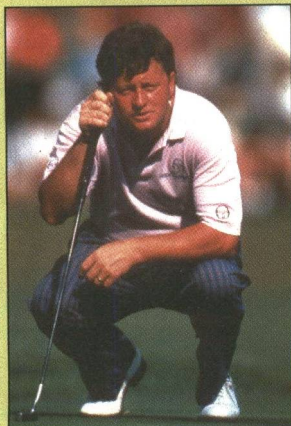

At the time Brand's Hatch and Silverstone shared the staging of the British Grand Prix before Silverstone won the exclusive contract. The last Grand Prix of Europe to be staged in Great Britain was at Brand's Hatch in 1985.

The first ever motor racing at Donington Park took place 60 years ago on March 25 1933. ■

THIS WILL BE the fourth and final day of the Freport-McMoRan Classic from the lush landscape of the English Turn Golf and Country Club, New Orleans. Some of the world's top players will be competing for a share of the $1 million dollar prize fund with the winner collecting a cheque for $180,000.

Last year American Ryder Cup team member Chip Beck scooped this title after shooting a sterling 7 under par 65. At the halfway stage Beck had a four-stroke advantage and seemed to be cruising to victory. However, he faltered on the third day with a 74 but managed a smooth 70 on the final day for a one stroke victory. ■

Donington Grand Prix tickets must be won!

DONINGTON PARK is hosting the Formula 1 'Grand Prix of Europe' on Easter Sunday April 11th, and Cable Guide has two pairs of special trackside enclosure tickets to give away.

Simply answer the following question:

The 1993 Grand Prix of Europe coincides with the 10th anniversary of the Formula 1 debut of which leading driver and recent champion? Here's a clue: he first tested at the circuit in July 1983 driving a Williams FW08 C.

The first correct answer drawn from the hat will win a pair of special trackside enclosure tickets worth £60 each.

Entries on a postcard to:

Monte Carlo or bust

SKY TELEVISION'S exclusive deal to screen live action from the new ATP Tour Championship Series throughout 1993 began on March 1st with the Champions Cup from Indian Wells.

This was the first of nine events on the international ATP Tour to have been given superior status, and each is guaranteed a top class entry. From this season it will be compulsory for the

Monte Carlo Open Tennis - Live

Sky Sports,
Monday 19th to Sunday 25th world's ten highest-ranking players to enter at least eight of the nine tournaments.

1976 French Open winner Sue Barker will present the coverage with expert analysis from Andrew Castle and commentary from Gerry Williams and Bill Threlfall.

The ATP Tour continues this month with the Monte Carlo Open which, by its very name, conjures up a host of glamorous images: sun, sea, wealth, casinos, yachts and a spectacular setting.

The big names of the game were thin on the ground in the 1992 draw, with those who did attend dropping like flies before the closing stages of the competition. Boris Becker, playing in the familiar surroundings of his adopted home, was seeded 1 but lost to Aaron Krickstein in the quarter finals, while Pete Sampras, ranked 2, went out in the second round.

Third seed Michael Stich also lost in the early stages, as did fourth seed Guy Forget, with the honours and the lion's share of the $1,270,000 prize fund going to Australian Thomas Muster, who defeated Aaron Krickstein in the Final.

If 1992 was hardly a vintage year for the Monte Carlo Open, 1991 provided plenty of copy for the world's tennis hacks.

However, it wasn't Sergi Bruguera, the eventual winner and conqueror of Boris Becker, who was the centre of attention. His thrilling victory over the flame-haired German paled into insignificance besides the big story of the competition – the humiliating come-back attempt by one of the greatest players of all time, Bjorn Borg.

Playing with his traditional wooden racquet, the Swede's much-hyped return to the game ended in disappointment when he went down to graphite-wielding Spaniard Jordi Arrese, ranked just 52 on the ATP computer, in the first round.

Unlike past years, the 1993 Monte Carlo Open is now guaranteed a first class entry of players. The competition is one of the events that has attained elevated status on the ATP tour, and is now classed as one of the nine Super Series tournaments.

This is good news for tennis fans, as the new rules stipulate that nearly all of the world's top ten players will have to make an appearance there.

It's a holi-holiday!

With more than 500 movies on cable television to choose from, 'Cable Guide' previews a clutch of goodies showing over Easter

The Hard Way

The Movie Channel: Good Friday 9th 8.00pm

A smart, exciting comedy thriller starring James Woods as tough, streetwise New York cop John Moss and Michael J Fox as pampered Hollywood actor Nick Lang, a major 'star' hoping to land a role in a new police thriller.

To help him beat Mel Gibson for the lead, Lang attaches himself to Moss, much to the latter's disgust, in order to 'get under his skin' and find out what makes a street cop tick.

But he gets more than he bargained for when he finds himself teamed with the cynical, hard-boiled Moss on the trail of an elusive sniper littering the Big Apple with dead bodies.

Directed by John Badham and also featuring LL Cool J. ■

James Woods in 'The Hard Way'

Lost in the Barrens

The Movie Channel Easter Sunday 11th 4.00pm

Nicholas Shields and Evan Adams star in this moral tale about two young boys – one from the city, the other a Native American – who find themselves lost in the American wilderness.

Although rivals, they learn that their only chance of survival is by working together. Also starring Lee J Campbell and Michael Scott. ■

Easter Dream

Sky One: Easter Sunday 11th 11.30am

This enchanting Easter family special stars Casey Ellison and Oscar Rowland, and tells the touching tale of Jason, a young boy who is finding it difficult to cope with the loss of his father.

His Grandfather tries to comfort him by sharing the story of Easter. ■

For Your Eyes Only

Sky Movies Plus: Easter Monday 12th 5.50pm

No other James Bond film has provoked so much debate among 007 fans. After the big-budget outer-space excesses of 1979's Moonraker, producer Cubby Broccoli stripped back his Fleming franchise, turned the series over to former second-unit director/editor John Glen and attempted a return to the more simplistic, down-to-Earth, stunt-oriented adventure and espionage of the Bond novels.

Having said that, this exciting tale about Bond (Roger Moore this time around) tracing a top secret military device that has been sunk in a surveillance vehicle off the Greek coast is the first in the long-running series that did not credit Ian Fleming as the story's original author, even though it is loosely based on his novel of the same name. Roger Moore has never been cooler or crisper than he is in this.

Also starring Carole Bouquet, a non-singing but nevertheless good-natured Chaim Topol and the durable Lois Maxwell as Moneypenny, known to many as the voice of Stingray's Atlanta Shore. ■

Fred Astaire and Judy Garland in 'Easter Parade'

Easter Parade

Bravo: Easter Sunday 11th 8.00pm

Judy Garland and Fred Astaire team up in the Irving Berlin musical that has Astaire taking revenge on his ex-dance partner Ann Miller by training unknown circus girl Garland for stardom.

Musical highlights include Stepping Out with My Baby and A Couple of Swells. Incidentally, Fred Astaire was second choice after Gene Kelly, who had to pull out with a damaged ankle. ■

Jetsons: The Movie

The Movie Channel: Easter Monday 12th April 6.00pm

The kids will love this full-length animated feature that follows the far out exploits of space-age family the Jetsons, a big screen expansion of the popular 1960s Hanna-Barbera cartoon series that features the voices of Mel Blanc (best-known as the voice of Bugs Bunny), George O'Hanlon, Penny Singleton and Tiffany. ■

Top Ten
Video Countdown Show
Fridays 8.00pm,
Saturdays 10.00am,
Sundays 1.00pm

GEORGE STRAIT IS NO stranger to CMT Europe viewers who have seen him performing I Cross My Heart and Heartland from the soundtrack of the film Pure Country, in which he also stars.

Strait is the first of the current generation of country stars to accept the challenge of being a leading man in a movie, and has been leading the way ever since arriving in Nashville in 1981.

In 1979 he was managing a ranch in Texas by day and playing traditional Texas dancehall songs with the Ace in the Hole band at night.

Following numerous club bookings Strait landed an MCA Records contract in Nashville, and a decade later has logged a singular track record of popularity and recognition. His traditional and genuine sound and look, which resulted in his spending more time at the top of the country charts than any other performer in the last decade, have become much imitated symbols in country music.

In Pure Country Strait plays a country music singer who leaves the pressures of his superstar lifestyle and returns to his native

Texas to rediscover his roots. Also starring are Lesley Ann Warren, Isabel Glassner and Rory Calhoun.

The soundtrack album features several straight-up honky tonk tunes like The King of Broken Hearts and When Did You Stop Loving Me, as well as the lush I Cross My Heart and the rollicking country-rock groove of Heartland, currently riding high in the CMT Europe Top Ten Video Countdown. ■

Country Characters

HAL KETCHUM'S LATEST album Sure Love contains the same passion, romance and emotion that catapulted his previous release, Past the Point of Rescue, to gold status.

Between them the albums have produced four hit country videos, Smalltown Saturday Night, I Know Where Love Lives, Past the Point of Rescue and Sure Love, all seen on CMT Europe.

Originally from Greenwich, New York, the 39-year-old singer/songwriter worked as a furniture builder and sang and played drums in R&B bands for 20 years before finding success in Nashville three years ago.

His measured, low-key approach and unusual slant have established him as an affectionate, wry and impressive singer noted for a strong live act with his band the Alibis.

Sure Love is a mellow package that includes touching songs like Daddy's Oldsmobile, which puts a new perspective on homelessness, the swingin' Till the Coast Is Clear, and the American Indian rights saga Trail of Tears, which highlights US theft of Indian land. ■

ChildLine update . . .

PEOPLE ALL OVER the country have been raising money to sponsor a toy chick on the record-breaking flight for ChildLine.

The chicks will 'fly' from Dover to Calais this Easter – weather permitting – in a specially converted Citroën 2CV car attached to a balloon guided by world-renowned pilot Phillip Saunders and his teenage daughter Sacha. Children's Channel presenter Michael Winsor is going to ignore his fear of flying to keep viewers up-to-date with the high-jinks from a jet. So why not join in the fun on Easter weekend (if the event is delayed owing to bad weather it will be rescheduled to a later April weekend).

Schools, youth groups, companies and associations have been getting together to book a perch for their chick for as little as £100 to help ChildLine. Or you can sponsor one on your own.

On receipt of your £100 a Chick Airlines flight ticket will be issued to you. After the flight your chick will be returned to you with a commemorative photograph and an exclusive Chicks Channel Chase certificate.

Sponsored mini-marathons, swims, plays and much more have all boosted the appeal.

ChildLine receives 10,000 attempted calls a day but a lack of funds means only 2500 of these get answered. ChildLine's dream is to answer every call. Your money will help to turn Easter's flight of fancy into real counselling for abused children! You can send donations to ChildLine, Freepost 1111, London N1 0BR. The donations hotline is 071-239 1006.

As The Children's Channel puts the fun into fundraising for ChildLine this Easter, 'Cable Guide' asks some of the well-known personalities who support the charity for the likes and dislikes of their young years. Thousands of people have been in a flap preparing for this month's top-flight event. The Chick's

Lesley Joseph, Dorian in Birds of a Feather

Loved: My best memory of childhood was the time I entered a poetry competition at Quinton Kynaston School. I was reading a piece by Gerard Manley Hopkins. Before leaving my mother told me off for not doing enough school work and said that I would come bottom of the class. I ended up winning the poetry competition. 'Well I suppose you did terribly, didn't you!' my mother stated. 'Yes, appalling. I'm so ashamed,' I replied.

'I told you so,' said Mother, as I produced the cup from behind my back.'

Loathed: Seeing a member of my class, Billy, being caned. He had to bend over and was given six of the best. This horrific experience put a chill in me I have never quite forgotten.

Left: Lesley Joseph

Danny McCall, formerly Owen in Brookside

My only childhood memory was one snowy day when I was about five. My mother had put me in the bath. When my mother wasn't looking I sneaked downstairs and outside. Running down the street in just my wellies, a neighbour managed to stop me and take me back to my Mum. Incidentally, you wouldn't catch me doing that now!

Michael Winsor, Children's Channel presenter

Loved: My first stage experience. I went on stage at the Leicester Haymarket as a member of a gang with Roy Hudd as Fagin. That was when I was bitten by the bug. A close second would be my grandmother's apple pies. My mother's aren't as good.

Loathed: Being made to do cross-country running. All that mud!

Channel Chase is a sponsored hot-air balloon race to France to raise money for ChildLine, the free helpline for children in trouble or danger. There will be in-flight entertainment for viewers as an armada of 50 balloons carrying sponsored cuddly toy chicks and surprise guests joins in the wacky race.

Michaela Strachan, presenter on the Children's Channel, BBCtv and ITV

Loved: Going on holiday abroad with my family. We went to America and we went on safari in Kenya – that was brilliant!

Loathed: Injections! The doctor used to have to chase me round the surgery to give me an injection. I had one the other day and it didn't actually hurt.

Toby Anstis, BBC children's presenter

Loved: Dancing alongside Mikhail Baryshnikov at the age of 12 in the evening performance of Mother Goose at the Royal Opera House. I was accepted at the age of 10 into the Royal Ballet School.

Loathed: My only bad experience was during a scouting expedition. I fell out of a tree and broke my arm. I had to wait for ages in agonising pain for the ambulance to arrive.

Shane Richie, Going Live presenter

Loathed: My most horrible memory of childhood was sharing a big council house in North West London with eight other families and sharing a room with my Mum, Dad and my brother. I would often wake up with tramps sleeping on my own doorstep, it was just like living in a hostel.

Loved: As I shared a bed with my brother my best memory was when he stopped wetting himself.

Adrian Rose, presenter on Top of the Pops and Artifax

Loved: Summer holidays! I even remember as far back as when I was three years old. The whole family, my Mum, Dad, sister and grandparents used to go away for two weeks. I looked forward to it all year.

Right: Adrian Rose

Michael Winsor and Michaela Strachan

Loathed: I have always enjoyed eating. Unfortunately when I was younger I was above average weight. Other children can be cruel. They can leave you out of games and groups if your appearance is different from the average. I used to get teased by people at school because of the way I looked. It upset me a great deal. You learn to cope and in my case lose weight. If you feel good about yourself don't worry, they have the problem not you.

Tasmin sings for ChildLine

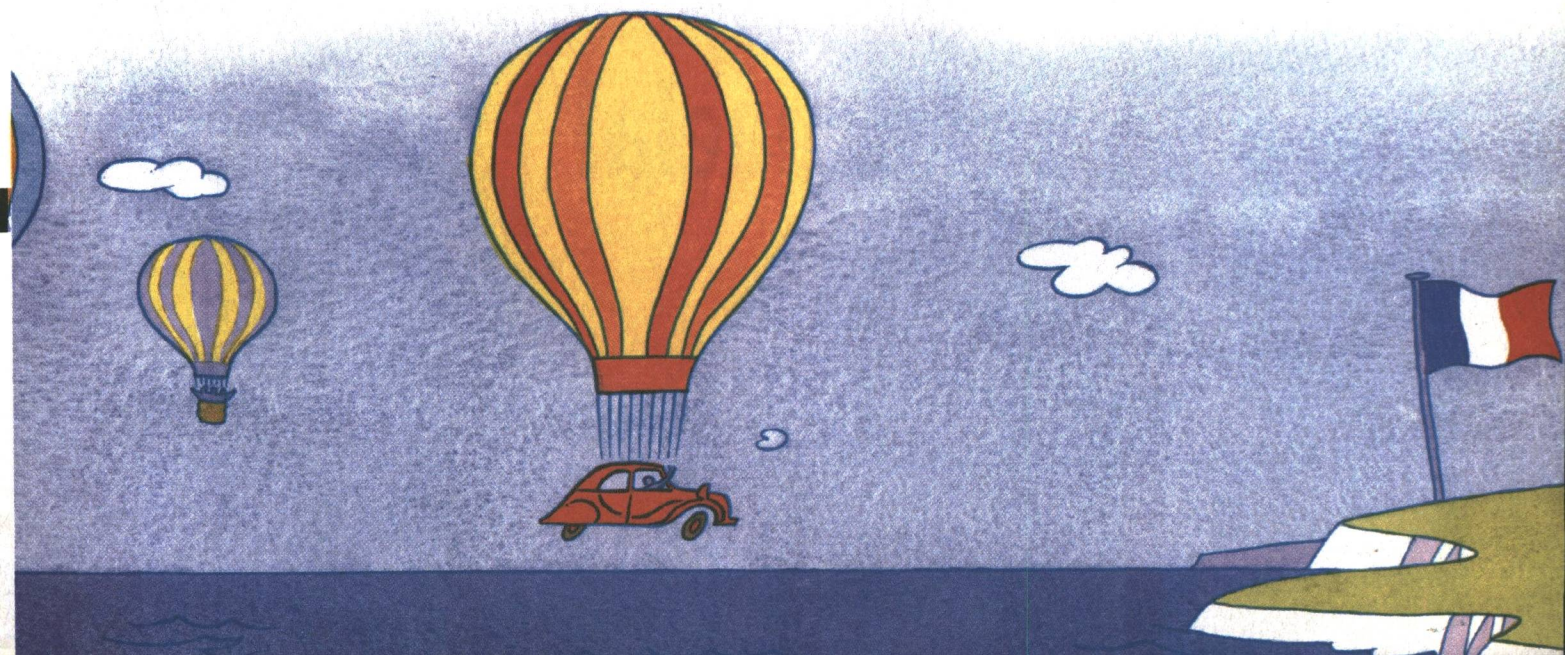

TASMIN ARCHER, the 29-year-old singer/songwriter from Bradford who had a Christmas number one with Sleeping Satellite, is lending her support to the ChildLine appeal.

Her recent single, In Your Care, is an emotive ballad about child abuse. Her royalties and EMI's profits from the single are being given to ChildLine.

Tasmin Archer explains: 'Under normal circumstances I wouldn't make my charitable donations public. However, by openly supporting ChildLine I hope not only to contribute much needed funds but also to raise public awareness of this serious social problem.'

Esther Rantzen, chairman of ChildLine, said: 'In Your Care vividly describes the loneliness and longing of an abused child and ChildLine is enormously grateful that Tasmin has dedicated her royalties to us.'

● Esther interview: next page

CHILDLINE: TO LISTEN, COMFORT AND PROTECT

THAT'S LIFE presenter Esther Rantzen is the moving force behind ChildLine.

'We opened helplines after an edition of That's Life in which we talked about child abuse and the lines were jammed,' she told Cable Guide.

The BBC had to shut the lines down after 24 hours and that left the That's Life team with the 'nightmare' that thousands of young callers had to be ignored. Childcare experts were asked whether a helpline for children would be of value. The answer was it certainly would but that it would be impossible to set up. However, efforts were made to set up such a service and with offers like that of BT, which donated the London premises for ChildLine, it began to take shape.

'The first night there were over 50,000 calls,' Esther says. 'Now we get 10,000 a day, except when we publicise something like bullying, when it can double.'

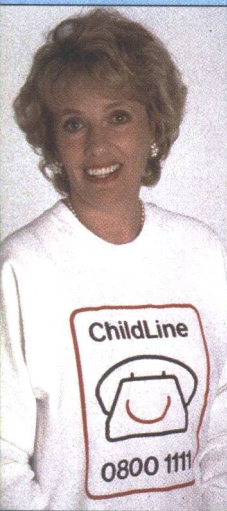

Esther describes how the ChildLine staff help callers: 'We listen, comfort and protect. We tell them that they are precious, give them time to talk and tell them that we care. If they are in danger we find them protection from other family members or the police.'

So how will the money raised by the Chicks Channel Chase be used?

'It will pay for children's phone calls. £5 pays for half an hour's counselling and half an hour can save a life.'

The ChildLine freephone number is 0800 1111. It is a service for any child with any problem, 24 hours a day, every day. The largest categories of problems dealt with are sexual and physical abuse.

KID'S STUFF

No-go zone for adults!

What's brand new, red, yellow and blue and totally different?

– The new look on The Children's Channel!

It's the only place you'll see blue bananas, yellow post boxes and policemen in red uniforms – so expect the unexpected this month. It's totally exclusive to kid's so get ready for April 5th and The Children's Channel's relaunch!

Watch out for:

● RATKAN II (weekdays 7.00am, weekends 8.30am).

RatKan launches the relaunch on Monday 5th! Permanently based on RatKan II is an android, the personal assistant, operator, cook, bottle washer and real brain behind the complicated workings of the spacecraft RatKan. Joining him are a team of top children's television presenters taking it in turns to host the show's off-the-wall features, jokes, stories and events.

● SAY AHHH!, a programme specially designed for those feeling a little bit poorly that can be seen on weekdays at 11.30am and 2.30pm. Included are some of your favourite programmes like Start Here, a show that teaches science in a fun way and Animals in Action.

● COMEDY HOUR, shown on Saturdays and Sundays between 3.00pm and 4.00pm will keep the smile on your face with the all-singing, all-dancing puppet cast of Chicken Minute.

● NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK (weekdays at 9.00am) sees Donnie, Jordan, Jon, Joe and Danny strutting their stuff and singing their hearts out on stages all over the world, while C.L.Y.D.E. (weekends at 8.30am) features a computer with an irrepressible sense of humour who has been banished from a planet of serious computers and ends up in Sam and Matt's back garden. ■

Hello, Michaela!

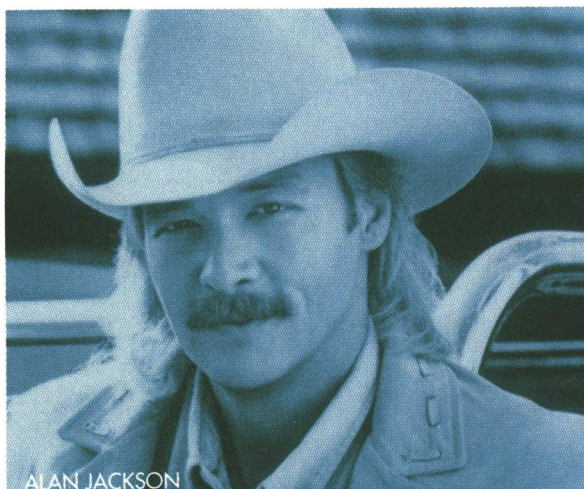

MICHAELA STRACHAN joins TCC this month.

She is co-hosting with Gia Milinovich the new rip-roaring, all-singing, all-dancing show that goes out on every second Saturday (starting April 4th 4.00pm).

Filmed in front of an audience with live music, dancing, gunge games, competitions and guests, it will be called – you guessed it – The Electric String Vest! ■

BILL GETS A ROCKET

The Rocketeer

Sky Movies Plus, Sunday 4th 8.00pm

DAVE STEVENS'S high-flying cult comic book character is lavishly brought to life in Walt Disney's hit film The Rocketeer.

In 1938 a racing pilot (Bill Campbell) finds a one-man rocket pack which he uses to save a distressed plane at an air show (conveniently plugging a fuel leak in the pack with a piece of chewing gum!).

It turns out that the rocket pack, which was invented by Howard

Hughes, is being sought by the FBI, a bunch of gangsters lead by Eddie Valentine (played by Paul Sorvino), and a group of Nazis who want to use it for world domination. Phew!

So it's up to the Rocketeer and his engineer mentor Peevy (Alan Arkin) to foil the dastardly scheme.

A high octane, high-flying live action comic strip that features a tumultuous shoot-out between the three interested parties. ■

The Rocketeer evades a fiery death

Rose is no shrinking violet . . .

Rambling Rose

The Movie Channel, Friday 30th 8.00pm

A NOSTALGIC tender comedy-drama set in 1935 in which Laura Dern (pictured left with Lukas Haas) stars as a 19-year-old girl whose promiscuous ways throw a well-to-do Southern family into turmoil.

Desperate for love and affection of any kind, Rose immediately falls for the man of the house – the courtly Daddy Hillyer, played by Robert Duvall – although it is on 13-year-old Buddy (Lukas Haas, best-remembered as Samuel Lapp in Witness) that she makes the greatest impression, opening his eyes to his own sexuality and setting in motion a chain of events that has a profound effect on the whole family.

Based on the novel by Calder Willingham, this gripping but delicately unassertive depression drama gains greatly from its period setting, and earned Oscar nominations for Laura Dern and mother Diane Ladd. ■

BACK TO BASICS

Regarding Henry

The Movie Channel

Tuesday 20th 8.00pm

ESTRANGED from his wife and young daughter, and despised by his colleagues, tough New York attorney Henry Turner (Harrison Ford) is shot in a hold up. He survives, but oxygen deprivation leaves him with total loss of memory, speech and motor skills.

This shocking incident forces him to start over again, rebuilding his world and reassessing his life with the help of his wife Sarah (Annette Bening) and black therapist Bradley.

Directed by Mike Nichols, the man responsible for The Graduate, Catch-22 and Silkwood, who was also teamed with Ford once before in 1987's Oscar-nominated comedy Working Girl. ■

Red barrel

Year of the Gun

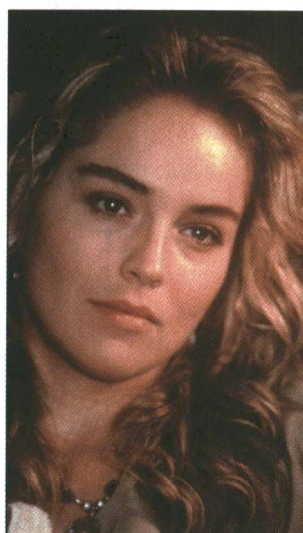

Sky Movies Plus, Saturday 24th 10.00pm

'IN A CITY BATHED in blood . . . who can you trust?' asked the publicity of the day, and it's a good question.

Andrew McCarthy plays a reporter in Rome whose investigations into the terrorist activities of the Red Brigades put not only his own life but also the lives of the people he loves in danger.

Based on Michael Mewshaw's novel of the same name, this political thriller is crammed with gunfire, chases, twists and red herrings, and also stars Basic Instinct star Sharon Stone as a photographer who finds herself getting too close to the truth for comfort.

The movie is directed by John Frankenheimer. ■

Whole lotta Dublin soul

The Commitments

The Movie Channel, Sunday 7th 7.00pm

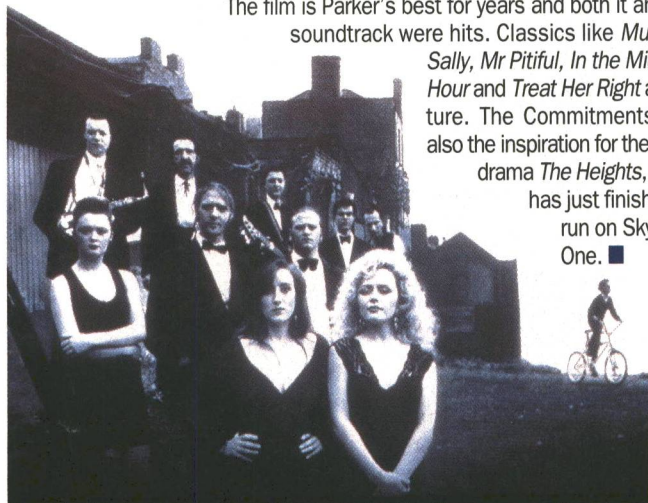

TWO DUBLIN LADS ask their mate Jimmy Rabbitte to manage their band. He agrees if the pair will sack their keyboard player and start bashing out working-class music: Dublin soul.

They enlist the slob Deco as lead singer, the experienced Joey 'the Lips' Fagan on trumpet and three backing singers, Bernie, Natalie and the glamorous Imelda. Just add drums, piano and sax and you have the Commitments. Alan Parker's gritty, spunky movie charting the ups and downs of this mixed bunch is a streetwise and foot-tapping treat. It is based on the biting funny book of Roddy Doyle. He wrote the script with Dick Clement and Ian La Frenais, whose credits include The Likely Lads, Auf Wiedersehen, Pet and Full Stretch.

The young hopefuls doggedly rehearse and build up a cult following in the pubs and clubs via a repertoire of Motown, soul, and rhythm and blues. There is a lot of excellent music and performances to be enjoyed as the band make headway until personal frictions undermine the crack to be had on stage.

Why is the middle-aged Jimmy the Lips such a hit with the female band members, the gormless male members ask themselves. And that Deco! All right he can sing but he is such an obnoxious berk.

The film is Parker's best for years and both it and the soundtrack were hits. Classics like Mustang Sally, Mr Pitiful, In the Midnight Hour and Treat Her Right all feature. The Commitments was also the inspiration for the youth drama The Heights, which has just finished its run on Sky One. ■

Jack-of-all-crimes

The Two Jakes

Movie Channel

Sunday 14th 8.00pm

THE TWO JAKES is a sequel to that classic 1970s movie Chinatown.

It was buried by the critics but less bileful observers say that that reaction was excessive. The movie may gain a cult following as audiences look at it afresh.

Directed by and starring Jack Nicholson, who again appears as the detective specialising in divorce work, Jake Gittes, the film had a troubled production. The original attempt to film it collapsed in 1985 and it did not resurface until 1990.

The Two Jakes is set 11 years after Chinatown when Gittes has secured a cushy number for himself snooping on adulterous couples for vengeful spouses. Gittes is hired by Jake Berman to spy on his wife. He sets up a tape to record the activity in the wife's hotel love-nest and is horrified when Berman bursts into the room and blows his cuckold away. ■

ALL-STAR ATTRACTIONS

CAROLINA SKELETONS The Movie Channel Friday 2nd 10.00pm
Oscar-nominated Lou Gossett, Jr. stars as James Bragg, a Green Beret Marine who returns to his small South Carolina hometown in 1967 at the behest of his mother in order to clear the name of his younger brother who was wrongly executed for a murder he did not commit. Despite the gains of the Civil Rights Movement, Bragg finds a lingering atmosphere of pervasive racism and a hostile attitude that hampers his investigations. A powerful drama with a social message that also stars Bruce Dern.

SUBURBAN COMMANDO Sky Movies Plus, Sunday 11th 8.00pm
'Bring back the Hulkster' the fans are crying, and to whet their appetites while he makes up his mind, here's a dose of big screen family fun with the WWF star himself. In this amiable low-brow comedy-adventure Hulk plays Shep Ramsay, an intergalactic alien bounty hunter who is forced to crash land in a sleepy suburban town. He promptly moves in with a local family, headed by businessman Charlie Wilcox (Christopher Lloyd), and it's not long before the big guy from another planet (California?) is shaking up the neighbourhood with his outer-space approach to everyday problems. Once described as a 'lovechild of Star Wars and Kindergarten Cop', the movie also stars Shelley Duvall, who did such a great job of screaming at Jack Nicholson.

DILLINGER Sky Movies Plus Tuesday 6th 8.00pm
The life and times of notorious 1930s gangster John Dillinger, with Mark Harmon tackling the tough guy role that made Lawrence Tierney a star in the mid-1940s. A bank robber who made important criminal contacts during his first stint behind bars, Dillinger formed a crack criminal gang who became folk heroes in the space of only 13 months. The cocky young hood became the FBI's Public Enemy Number One before being gunned down by law enforcement agents on the steps of a Chicago movie theatre. Sherilyn Fenn plays Dillinger's moll Billie, while Tierney himself turns up in a small cameo as a doomed sheriff.

HARLEY DAVIDSON AND THE MARLBORO MAN

Sky Movies Plus Wednesday 28th 10.00pm

An action tale starring Mickey Rourke and Don Johnson as a Harley-riding drifter and a retired rodeo star who team up to take on some unscrupulous creditors who are ganging up on an old friend. Also starring Chelsea Field and Daniel Baldwin, and directed by Simon Wincer.

THE MONK The Movie Channel Saturday 17th 10.00pm

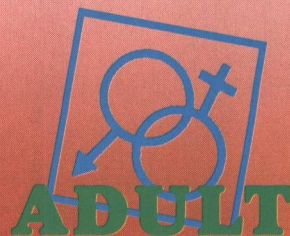

An intense tale of forbidden passion set against the backdrop of mid-18th Century Madrid at a time when the Holy Inquisition dominated the land. Lorenzo, a handsome young monk (Paul McGann), falls prey to the seductive wiles of a young girl (Sophie Ward) who has made a pact with the Devil in order to win his love. Once inducted to the pleasures of the flesh, Lorenzo gets a little out of hand and it's not long before the Inquisition decides that enough is enough. For Lorenzo there is one avenue of escape... a pact with Satan. The Name of the Rose II?

THE TIME OF THE GYPSIES (DOM ZA VESANJE) The Movie Channel Thursday 1st 12.15am

Yugoslavian director Emir Kusturica's terrific, timeless epic about young gypsy boy Perhan (Dajor Dujmovic), a gawky, bespectacled teen whose telekinetic powers put him apart from the rest of his itinerant community. Crushed by his unrequited love for a beautiful gypsy girl, Perhan takes off to Italy with the 'Sheik', a low-life criminal who teaches him the ways of a street-smart hustler. The film won Kusturica a Best Director award at Cannes, as well as a Silver Bear from the Berlin Film Festival, his second following his earlier success there with the glorious When Father Was Away On Business.

Cachet & Carry

BORN Archibald Alexander Leach in 1904 to a poverty-stricken Bristol family, Cary Grant ran away from home at 13 to join a troupe of acrobats and arrived in New York in 1920.

He found summer employment as a Coney Island lifeguard while working as a song-and-dance man in one-night stands during the winter, but by 1923 he was appearing in Broadway musicals and operettas.

He continued to Hollywood where, after a succession of supporting roles, he was cast opposite Marlene Dietrich in Von Sternberg's Blonde Venus, also appearing with Mae West in She Done Him Wrong.

He was soon established as a straight but appealing romantic leading man, but after 1937 he unveiled his flair for screwball comedy in films like Topper, The Awful Truth, Bringing Up Baby and Holiday.

His new screen personality of a super-sophisticated, witty, casual and debonair man-about-town at odds with an upside-down world made him a perennial favourite with cinema audiences for more than 30 years.

Grant's sterling public image survived frequent setbacks in his private life, for instance, his confused period of dabbling in the supernatural under the influence of charlatans.

His four unstable marriages to actress Virginia Cherrill, heiress Barbara Hutton, actress Betsy Drake and actress Dyan Cannon all ended in divorce. Cannon was the mother of his only child, a girl, when he was past 60. But during their divorce hearing she accused him of being an LSD user and of beating her up in front of the servants.

Nevertheless he was highly enough regarded to receive a special Academy Award in 1969 for his contribution to films, having retired from the screen in 1966 to become an executive of the Faberge cosmetics firm.

Cary Grant died in 1986. ■

Car 54 Where Are You?

SLOT: Fridays at 3.00pm, Bravo
STARRING: Joe E Ross as Officer Gunther Toody, Fred Gwynne as Officer Francis Muldoon

SCREENED: September 1961 to September 1963

STORYLINE: Officers Toody and Muldoon are the most unlikely patrol-car partners ever seen on a police force.

Assigned to New York's 53rd precinct on Tremont Avenue, a tough, run-down neighbourhood in the Bronx, they always seem to encounter more comedy than crime in the course of their disastrous misadventures.

Most of the action takes place in the precinct house, particularly in the locker room as the officers get into uniform, with lashings of slapstick comedy reminiscent of Mack Sennett.

EPILOGUE: Creator, producer and writer Nat Hiken also created The Phil Silvers Show and Bilko, in which Ross and Gwynne had also starred, while Gwynne turned up later in The Munsters and, latterly, The Cotton Club and My Cousin Vinny. ■

Bravo: Monday 12th 8.00pm

WHEN Alfred Hitchcock was planning the final chase scene over Mount Rushmore he encountered opposition from the US Department of the Interior who felt the use of the monument would constitute 'patent desecration', and advised him to 'Go back home to England and draw people scampering on the Queen's face.'

In the end Hitchcock was given permission to shoot the scene, which was filmed entirely at MGM studios, using mock-ups of the four Presidents' heads 'on condition that only the shoulder, or below the chinline' was used in close-up shots involving live actors.

THIS MONTH'S HIGHLIGHTS ON SKY

APRIL 1993

WRESTLEMANIA IX
LIVE IN APRIL ON SKY SPORTS

THIS APRIL, THE SKY MOVIES PLUS line-up is loaded with laughter, bursting with action and packed with adventure!

Sylvester Stallone makes his debut as a comedy actor, starring in the 1930's mobster movie, Oscar. The story is a farce, based on a French play about a gangster attempting to go straight. Stallone is supported by Tim Curry of Rocky Horror fame and the recent Oscar nominated actress Maria Tomei.

Two action movies to look out for in April - The Rocketeer and Suburban Commando.

Walt Disney's lavish screen adaptation of the 80's cult comic book character, The Rocketeer stars Bill Campbell, a newcomer to feature films. Producer Charles Gordon chose an unknown face to ensure that the film's production costs were evident on screen and not in a superstar's pocket!

Suburban Commando stars former World Wrestling Federation champion, Hulk Hogan as a galactic warrior, forced to crash land on Earth when his spaceship breaks down. Adopted into suburbia, he fast becomes a local hero.

Other films not to be missed in April include the James Bond-style adventure Teen Agent, starring 21 Jump Street actor, Richard Grieco, Mickey Rourke as a biker in Harley Davidson and the Marlboro Man and Sharon Stone in Year of the Gun.

SKY MOVIES GOLD presents a season of vintage tales of horror, mystery and suspense. Boris Karloff rises from the dead as The Mummy, a role which made horror film history. He then teams up with Dracula star, Bela Lugosi in The Raven, playing the disfigured victim of a deranged plastic surgeon. A star-studded version of the Louis Stevenson classic Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde finds three stars not usually noted for their horror film appearances - Spencer Tracy, Ingrid Bergman and Lana Turner.

REGARDING HENRY, COMING TO THE MOVIE CHANNEL this April, sees Harrison Ford making a departure from the heroic action man characters that have brought him fame. He stars as a ruthless lawyer, whose life is dramatically altered by a near fatal accident. Annette Benning superbly supports Ford as his wife in this tear-jerking drama.

Jack Nicholson returns as private eye Jake Gittes in The Two Jakes, sequel to 70's classic Chinatown. Nicholson also directed this detective thriller, which finds the 'two Jakes' Gittes and Berman up to their knees in deceit and murder.

Rock 'n' Roll Dublin style is offered by The Commitments. The story which is based on a novel by Roddy Doyle follows a group of working class youths who form an 'Irish soul' band. Andrew Strong was cast as the band's drunken and obnoxious lead singer by pure luck. He is the son of one of the session musicians and happened to be passing when director Alan Parker decided he was perfect for the role of Deco.

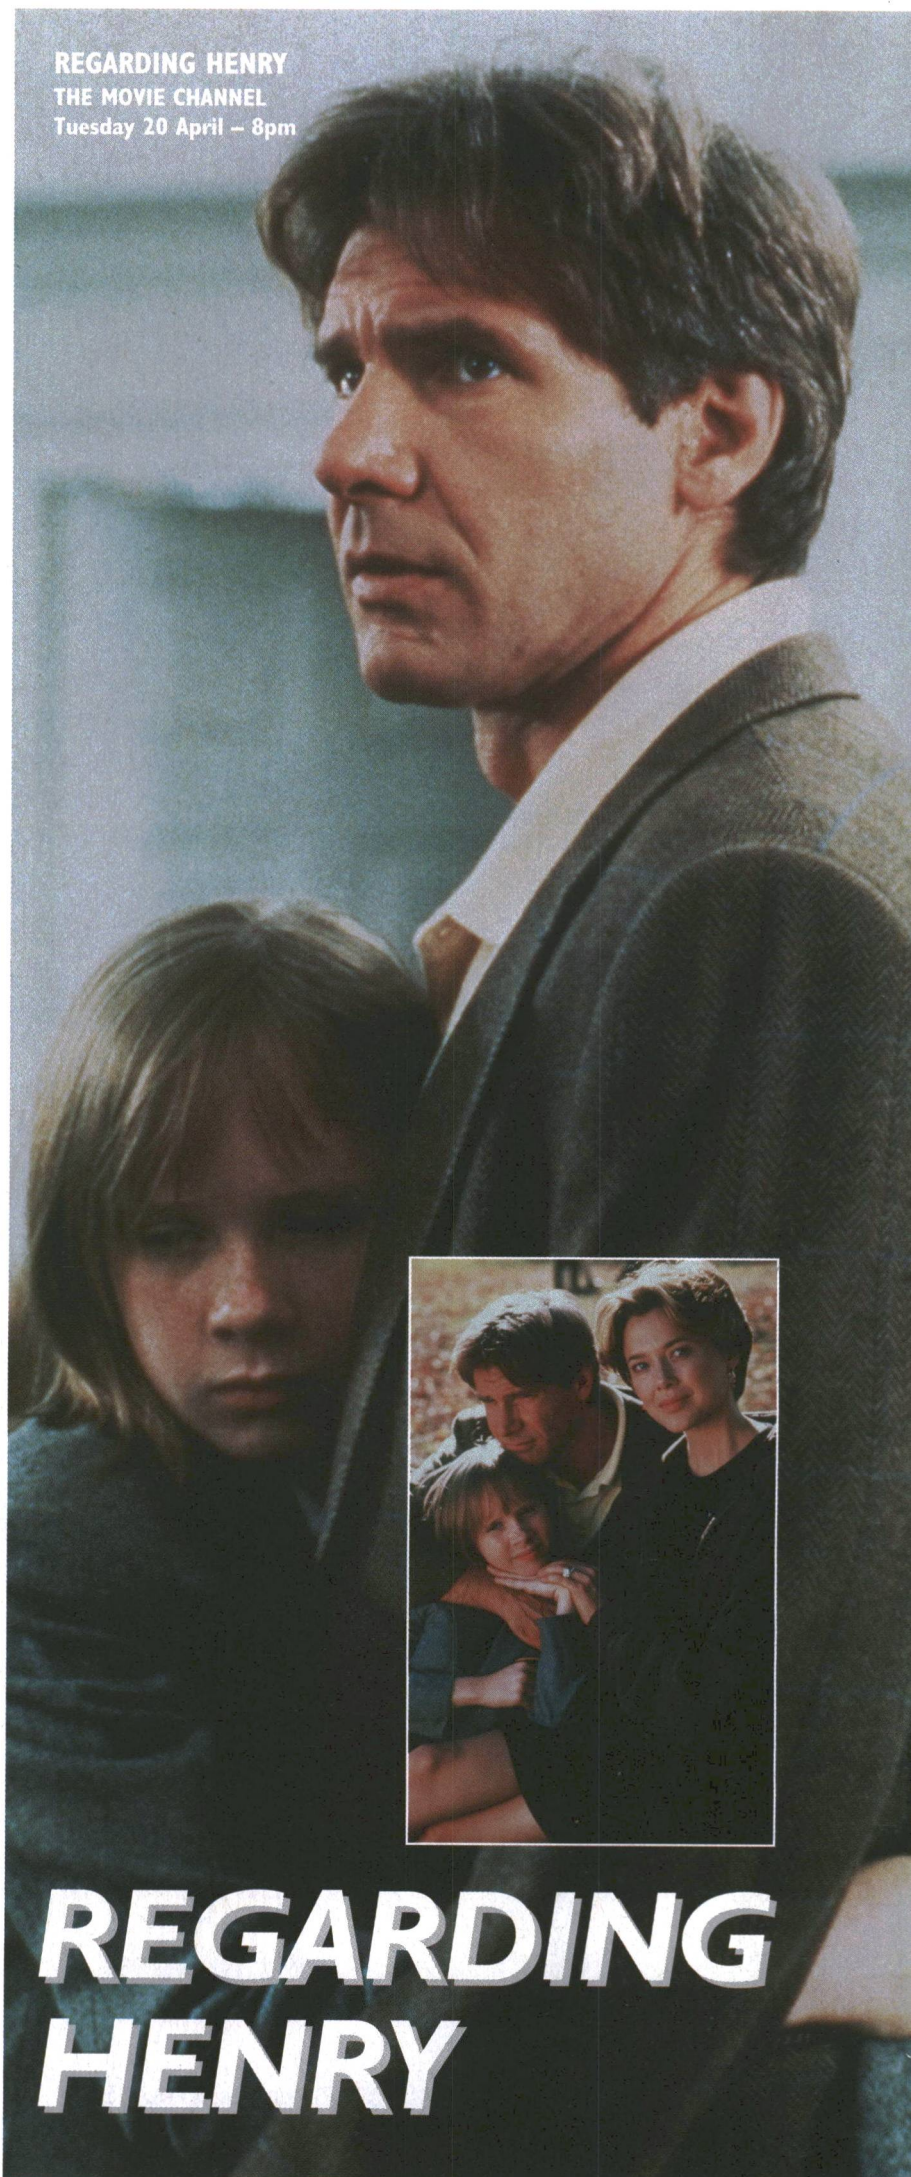

SKY MOVIES GOLD premieres for April include the 1967 prison comedy-drama, Cool Hand Luke which stars Paul Newman as a chain-gang prisoner in the deep South.

The 1966 sci-fi tale, Seconds, stars Rock Hudson as a bored businessman, whose body is remodelled so he can live a more exciting lifestyle!

NEW TO SKY ONE FOR APRIL comes Cable's favourite chat show hostess, Sally Jessie Raphael. Her highly entertaining show tackles issues close to everyone's hearts and sometimes creates havoc among the studio guests and audience. A new series of Sally Jessie Raphael starts on Monday 5 April and can be seen every weekday on SKY ONE at 2.15pm.

Three wartime drama mini-series are being screened on SKY ONE during April. The first starting on 4 April is Pursuit. It is July 1944 and as the conclusion to World War II approaches, a plot to kill Hitler fails. Ben Cross stars a Nazi officer, attempting to escape Hitler's wrath, disguised as a Jew.

Over Easter weekend, SKY ONE screens the first two parts of I'll Take Manhattan. It tells the story of Zachary Amberville, who returns home after the war and builds a publishing empire. Sibling rivalry between Zachary and brother Cutter, destroys the empire and their personal lives.

Jodie Foster plays Helene Bertrand in a screen adaption of a novel by Simone de Beauvoir, The Blood of Others. The mini-series is the first of de Beauvoir's novels to be screened. Set in Nazi-occupied France during World War II, The Blood of Others is a romantic thriller, examining the sacrifices people make – for love.

FILMS

Captain Blood
 Bravo 4.00pm
Gotta watch it, gotta watch it. Errol Flynn as a pirate laughing and loving with Olivia de Havilland. This is what movies are all about. Not a wasted line, wonderful black and white footage of Jamaica and buckling swashes all over the place.

GENERAL

Car 54, Where Are You?
 Bravo 11.30pm
Calling all cars...calling all cars. No two cops could have had more apt names than Toody and Muldoon if they were set for mayhem. And mayhem is what T and M get in a bundle. Good to see Fred (Herman Munster) Gwynne without all that monster make-up.

SPORT

Rugby League Great Britain vs France
 Sky Sports 7.00pm
Not one of League's most riveting confrontations, but a chance to sharpen skills for the matches against the Aussies.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

You can almost smell the pipe tobacco and hear the clip-clop of hoofs on Baker Street as Basil Rathbone (THE Sherlock Holmes) puts his enormous brain to work on another enormously difficult case. Truly enormous.

GENERAL

Van Halen
Rockumentary
MTV 7.30pm
Rock 'n' roll with the rough edges 'n' all. Mr Halen and his merry band aren't doing this rockdoc for fun though - it's about the sales on his first ever live album which was released in February. And you just thought he wanted to say "Hi".

SPORT

Monday Night Football
Sky Sports 7.00pm
Manchester United away to long-time Premier League title rivals Norwich City - could this be a title clincher for the Reds?

FILMS

The Truants
Super Channel
10.00pm
Now if I said this movie was called Isolakerulok and starred Karoly Eperjes, you probably wouldn't watch. But if I mentioned it was Hungarian, part of a world cinema season and would put you several steps ahead of your pals when talking about "films I've seen" in the pub - would you watch it then?

GENERAL

Spinning Out
The Learning
Channel 12 noon
Schizophrenia is a misunderstood illness, but TLC gives us the chance to learn. Sufferers offer amazing insights in this award-winning documentary.

SPORT

Snooker European League
Eurosport 10.00pm
It makes good late-night viewing, snooker. Jimmy White will keep you awake tonight playing pony-tailed Peter Ebdon.

FILMS

Naked Tango
Sky Movies Plus
11.40pm
A premiered movie and foreign too, so keep your eyes on the subtitles. You'll recognise Fernando Rey, but no one else. However, it's worth the effort in a classic boy-meets-girl-and tangos story.

GENERAL

On The Big Hill
The Discovery Channel 10.00pm
Watching frost-bitten heroes climb the impossible slope in unbelievable weather can give you the willies. This real-life drama is on Mount Everest with a British expedition. Wear thick gloves of your own to protect biting your nails.

SPORT

Cycling Gent-Wevelgem Race
Eurosport 2.30pm
It's live from Belgium and it doesn't have to be the Tour de France to be exciting, y'know.

FILMS

The Hard Way
The Movie Channel
8.00pm
James Woods does his starry-eyed stuff and Michael J Fox does his baby-faced thing as they try to do a buddy movie without being buddies. Almost too close to Michael's real life for comfort.

GENERAL

Harold Lloyd: The Third Genius
The Discovery Channel 11.00pm
OK, so Chaplin and Keaton got all the hoopla, but everyone can see in their mind's eye those shots of Harold Lloyd almost falling off the tall buildings. Here's some rare archive film to add to the myth of the specky hero.

SPORT

European Grand Prix Practice
Eurosport 1.00pm
If you've ever sat through a grand prix practice day then you know how exciting it is. Here you just see the crucial hour live when Senna and Co get white knuckles just going for pole position. The race isn't until Sunday, guys.

FILMS

Teen Agent
Sky Movies Plus
8.00pm
A young James Bond-type, Richard (21 Jump Street) Grieco does Indiana Jones stunts in a land where the goodies never seem to get hit by the bullets and the baddies die of old age. The producers wanted to "build the story around an actor with genuine star quality".

GENERAL

Til Death Us Do Part
UK Gold 7.30pm
Funny how this once-maligned sitcom is now Saturday night prime-time whereas once it had to be forced into the evening schedules. And Una Stubbs still looks just as lovely today.

SPORT

Show Jumping World Cup Final
Eurosport 5.00pm
Live from Gothenburg in Sweden comes one of equestrian's big days of the year.

FILMS

The Freshman
Sky Movies Plus
6.00pm
Don't you just love Marlon Brando when he does his Godfather impersonation? Here he does it with Matthew (Air America) Broderick who gets caught up in gangland nonsense. It was Marlon's first starring role for 10 years, so he was a little rusty, but always worth watching.

GENERAL

Murphy Brown
Sky One 8.00pm
This show is so big in the States. Candice Bergen is still a major turn-on for us guys and she's developed into the Nineties woman of substance and conscience for the gals. Maybe the guys should check out the substance and conscience too.

SPORT

Basketball European Championships
Men's Final Four
Eurosport 5.00pm
It's not the NBA, but it is live from Athens and it should be where Alton Byrd, Kingston and Co should be. If we Brits are ever good enough, that is.

FILMS

Carrie
Sky Movies Gold
9.45pm
Little Sissy Spacek gets the devil inside her - or it seems that way when things go crazy for her in a Brian DePalma blood and guts special. At least John Travolta doesn't sing in this one even though he's the goofy guy all the gals want.

GENERAL

Five Women Painters
The Learning Channel 2.00pm
After this series you'll have another reason why life is unfair to women. Five gals with great artistic ability from the 20s to the 40s, but with no critical acclaim.

SPORT

Rugby League Leeds vs Wigan
Sky Sports 7.00pm
There is no bigger club game in League than this. Leeds are desperate to emulate the Wigan successes of the past. Here's a chance to show their mettle live to the nation.

FILMS

Dead Men Don't Wear Plaid
Sky Movies Plus
4.00pm
Come home early for work for this Steve Martin black and white spoof which mixes in some old footage with Mr Martin's new old stuff. It's like watching Holsten Pils adverts non-stop for an hour and a half. And Steve Martin? Now THAT'S a funny guy.

GENERAL

Blankety Blank
UK Gold 5.00pm
Love him or hate him, you can't ignore that man Wogan if you watch TV. This was his first real mainstream BBC hit. It's time to relive the barbs of Telboy and fascinate at just what he did with that microphone on a stick.

SPORT

Basketball European Championships Men's Club Final Four
Eurosport 5.00pm and 7.00pm
Yes, it really is basketball week. Live final action from Greece all week.

Dance With Death
The Movie Channel
10.00pm
Maxwell Caulfield has got The Look. All the girls seem to fall for this kinda guy and he gets the gal in this one. But, wait, he's a detective so he's got to detect a bit too. Could be quite a combination if Max can do both Looking and Detecting at the same time.

GENERAL

Bruce Springsteen
Unplugged
MTV 11.00pm
Hands up anyone who doesn't like The Boss. So, no hands, eh? This acoustic programme could do for Brucey what it did for Eric Clapton - send him back into the music grammysphere. It'll be raw emotion from the man who was born to be unplugged.

SPORT

Rugby Sevens World Cup
Eurosport 1.00pm
While the 15-a-side game gets increasingly a kicking game, the sevens stuff is all handling, try-scoring and generally thrilling. Live from Murrayfield, let's hope for a Fijian feast.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

FILMS

The Last Married Couple in America
Sky Movies Gold
8.15pm
Last chance to see a bevy of stars prove that there's no such thing as a happy marriage - if it's in the good ol' US of A, that is. George Segal asks The Question: "I'm married, therefore I am?" while Natalie Wood tries to work out the answer.

GENERAL

Dukes of Hazzard
Sky One 4.00pm
The very first episode of this dippy car comedy set in the deep dumb south of Hazzard County. The cutsieness of Bo and Luke Duke plus the length of cousin Daisy's legs are good reasons for viewing.

SPORT

Artistic Gymnastics World Championships
Eurosport 2.00pm
From Birmingham and live are the girls with the balls and the little flag sticks who take grace to another level.

FILMS

Oscar
Sky Movies Plus
8.00pm
Now it's easy to knock Sylvester Stallone...so why should we change now! You've seen him as Rocky and Rambo, now try him as a Damon Runyon-type character named Snaps Provolone in a comic farce based on a French play. Sounds too good to miss? Well, you're holding the remote. Can't wait for Oscar V - The Final Comeback.

GENERAL

The Doris Day Show
Bravo 3.30pm
Perfect Sunday after-lunch fare from the girl who set a million pulses racing back in the fifties. Why didn't her show reach The Lucy Show proportions? Well, watch it and judge for yourself.

SPORT

London Marathon
Eurosport 10.00am
A great race through a great city. A mixture of sights and sounds, oddball cross-dressers and panting celebrities. Oh, and the real athletes do it in just over two hours.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

FILMS

Hellbound:
Hellraiser II
Sky Movies Plus
11.50pm
Now this movie doesn't start at almost midnight because it's soppy lovey stuff - it's hell on earth on film. But here's a plan so the whole family can enjoy it - tell you're girl it's a Disney classic and wait for her to grab you for comfort on the sofa. And, oh, send mum, dad and gran to bed early.

GENERAL

Neil Young Unplugged
MTV 7.00pm
Old Crazy Horse is back with the lead pulled out of his speakers, but the audience pulled in to a camp fire circle. Neil Young is trendy again and he could harvest a crop of hits from this.

FILMS

Regarding Henry
The Movie Channel
8.00pm
So you thought Harrison Ford was strictly an alien-fighting, treasure-hunting desperado, eh? Well, watch this UK TV premiere to change your mind. Mike (Working Girl) Nichols directs this drama about a lawyer who becomes retarded after a mugger's attack, which has some obvious flaws but compensates with the lovely Annette (Mrs Warren Beatty) Bening.

GENERAL

Going Straight
UK Gold 2.00pm and 7.30pm
When those immortal words "Norman Stanley Fletcher..." began the Porridge series, millions of laughs were unleashed. When the series ended, thank goodness for this sequel which has Ronnie Barker's Fletch at 45 and now behind the bars of domesticity. The series starts here.

FILMS

Turned Out Nice Again
Bravo 12.00
midnight
Forget Arnie and Sly, or Redford and Beatty - the new hero of the nineties will be George Formby. The banjo-playing balladeer from loverlee Lancisheer is a late-night delight. A film to send you to sleep smiling.

GENERAL

Those Were The Days
Sky News 2.30am
One for Insomniacs, but Angela Rippon presenting anything has a certain awakening quality. History is fun when you've got movietone news reels.

SPORT

Football European Cups
Eurosport 10.00pm
Not much English interest, of course, but it's another chance to see how much better AC Milan are than the rest of the footballing world.

FILMS

The Second Coming of Suzanne
Super Channel 10.00pm
Now here's a strange thing - a Richard (Close Encounters) Dreyfuss movie that hardly anyone has seen. Dickie stars opposite Sondra (Mrs Eastwood to you) Locke as a weird photographer who goes loopy. Dreyfuss is good at loopy.

GENERAL

Equinox: Sex, Lies and Toupee Tape
The Discovery Channel 9.00pm
Now for those follicle-challenged amongst us, a show examining the biology and psychology of baldness is one to video and watch alone in a darkened room. This is especially watchable because it talks about "The Miracle Cure"!

SPORT

The Boot Room
Sky Sports 11.00pm
Another visit to the much-talked-about talk show on soccer. Refs, administrators, managers and even players offer dissenting views.

FILMS

The Commitments
The Movie Channel
8.00pm

First time to see this movie that's got soul, chill'un. It's also got Alan (Mississippi Burning) Parker in the directorial chair telling a bunch of unknowns how to act like a bunch of unknowns. A director's dream. Great music, great funnies, great story. You'll definitely end up buying the album of Tamla classics.

GENERAL

A Horseman Riding By
UK Gold 8.00pm
The series started last week, but don't miss any more. It's all clipped speech, anguished glances and war-torn romance. Set in Devon, so we get the nice scenic stuff as well. Pure joy.

SPORT

Monte Carlo Open Tennis
Sky Sports 12 noon
I'd rather be in glorious Monte Carlo than watch it live on TV, but this will have to do. This tournament is the one in which Bjorn Borg tried to relive his golden days back in '91.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

CMT Europe

CMT Europe offers 24 hours a day of the very latest country music specifically for a European audience. It provides non-stop /chart-topping hits and new video releases by such artists as Billy Ray Cyrus, Marty Stuart, Mary-Chapin Carpenter, Randy Travis and Alan Jackson

Remember the reviews for this? Mickey Rourke and Don Johnson teaming up for the first time. Make that the last time. Still, you've paid your monthly subscription so it won't cost you anything to form your own opinion.

GENERAL

Sally Jessy Raphael
Sky One 2.15
This woman can be mentioned in the same sentence as Oprah. Does she have some wacky guests on this award-winning chat show or what? One of the survivors from the Lifestyle channel, Sally deserves a big audience.

SPORT

England vs Holland
Sky Sports 6.30pm
Time for major screaming and shouting as England's World Cup hopes either blossom or disappear live in front of our eyes. I predict Gascoigne to score a hat-trick and have us all singing Nessun Dorma.

Fascinating new studies, immortalised on classic WEDGWOOD® Queen's Ware

The Majesty of Owls

A stunning series of masterpieces by acclaimed bird artist, Trevor Boyer

The owl, Bird of wisdom, bird of luck, bird of prey. A magnificent, beautiful creature which has fascinated man for centuries.

Now, twelve masterly owl portraits are being issued in an exciting new set of collector's plates: The Majesty of Owls. On pure Wedgwood Queen's Ware, Trevor Boyer's outstanding original paintings have been beautifully recreated.

Meticulously detailed studies

Trevor Boyer has been painting and sketching birds from the age of fourteen. His love of wildlife and nature shines through his work – and his attention to fine detail makes his bird studies sought after by enthusiasts and collectors alike.

Skilled Wedgwood craftsmen and women have carefully reproduced these masterpieces on their creamy Queen's Ware. Every delicate brush stroke has been perfectly recreated from Trevor Boyer's original work.

Notice the sheer depth and clarity of the Snowy Owl's white plumage... the delicate shades and markings of the Barn Owl's wings... the Little Owl's bright, unblinking eyes... the alert stance of the Barred Owl.

On the reverse of each plate, you'll see further proof of fine workmanship. The artist's signature and the famous Wedgwood mark are your guarantee of excellence. A Certificate of Authenticity accompanies each plate.

The Snowy Owls
Giants of the owl world, standing over 2ft high
with a wing span of over 5ft.

Plates shown smaller than actual size of 8" in diameter.

The beauty of WEDGWOOD® Queen's Ware
Queen's Ware owes its name to the Royal Patronage of Queen Charlotte, wife of George III.

Josiah Wedgwood experimented for years to perfect this elegant and durable material. He succeeded in 1763, and today, Queen's Ware is sought after by collectors around the world.

Wedgwood Queen's Ware has brought these beautiful paintings to real and lasting life and has provided a fitting tribute to the skill of eminent artist, Trevor Boyer.

The Barn Owl
Sleeps by day, hunts by night. Its ghostly white shape silently leaves the roost to catch mice, rodents and insects. A Barn Owl's eyes are larger than those of any other bird. Its weird, ghoulish shriek pierces the night.

The Barred Owl
A particularly vocal species, the Barred Owl or "Hoot Owl" is more often heard than seen. Short, broad wings enable it to move easily through the wooded swamps and deep forests of its native American habitat.

The Little Owl
Standing just 8½" high, this spotted bird is increasingly common in England. It hunts both day and night for voles, mice and insects. The "frowning" expression and bright eyes hide a bold nature.

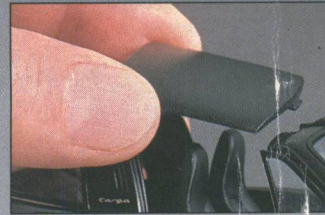

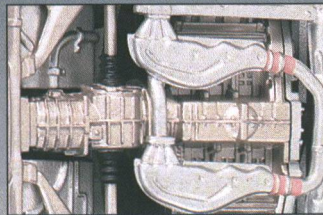

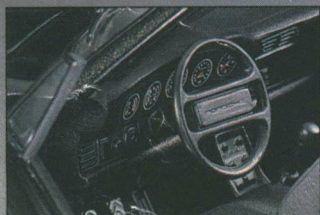

THE PORSCHE® 911

CARRERA® TARGA®

Franklin Mint Precision Models presents its superb 1:24 scale die-cast replica of the purest sports car on the road.

Shown smaller than actual size of approximately 6 7/8" in length. Scale 1:24.
